While TEFAF Maastricht, the flagship art and antiques fair that usually takes place in March, was cancelled for 2021 due to pandemic, it has been replaced by a digital edition of the fair which runs from September 9-13 (with an invitation-only preview on September 8). TEFAF's 'in-person' fairs will resume with "a hybrid fair celebrating TEFAF's 35th anniversary" next year (March 2022).

In the meantime, 11 new galleries have signed up for this online edition, bringing the total number of exhibitors to over 250.

In total over 700 works of art will be displayed digitally at the fair but earlier this week the organisers released a preview objects being offered by 18 of the dealers.

Here we pick out 10 objects that caught our eye.

1. Portrait of a young girl

'Portrait of a Young Girl' by Dirck Dircksz Van Santvoort, offered by Richard Green at 'TEFAF Online'. Image courtesy of Richard Green.

This portrait of a young girl holding buttercups with her dog beside her is by Dutch artist Dirck Dircksz van Santvoort (1610-80). Dating from 1632, the oil on panel was painted when the artist was 22 and is his earliest known dated portrait of a child.

It is offered by London dealer Richard Green at TEFAF Online.

2. Sèvres plate
